FOREWORD

AT THE PRESENT TIME EVERYONE IS ENGAGED IN THE FIGHT FOR VICTORY. BECAUSE OF THIS, WE HAVE CHOSEN "VICTORY" FOR THE THEME OF OUR YEARBOOK. WE WILL ENDEAVOR TO SHOW HOW BEAU-MONT HIGH SCHOOL IS PLAYING ITS PART IN THIS WORLD-WIDE SHOW.

VICTORY IS A THING ATTAINABLE, NOT YET ATTAINED. THEREFORE, IT IS URGED THAT WE DO NOT BECOME OVER-OPTIMISTIC AND LET OUR STANDARDS FALL, BUT INSTEAD RENEW OUR EFFORTS WHEREVER AND HOWEVER AND WHENEVER POSSIBLE, SO THAT WE MAY SHORTEN THE TIME THAT STANDS BETWEEN US AND THE FRUITS OF COMPLETE VICTORY THAT MUST BE OURS.

DEDICATION

With a humble and sincere sense of gratitude, duty, and respect, we, the staff of the 1945 Pine Burr, dedicate this book, its meanings and its memories, to those former students of Beaumont High School who are in the services of our country, and especially to those who have paid the highest price for victory and liberty.

We take special pride in paying tribute to their late Commander-in-Chief, Franklin Delano Roosevelt, who has given his life in the service of the country he loved.

In Memory of

W. Edgar ("Snow") Arthur, Jr.

A great fellow, an unfailing sportsman, and a friend.
To the very last he played the game hard and fair.

"Always a smile in victory or defeat."

I'll remember you always as an friend not as a fellow Student
Good luck always.

Dear Paul Dean,
This is the truth!!
I just want to say that I'm really and truly very, very glad that you said "yes" yesterday, because that's really what I wanted you to say. Thanks!! I know that when other people read this, they won't know what we're talking about, but as long as you do then everything is all right. Remember that little girl you called to see what else she was going to ask you? Well, read the first sentence and then you should know. Good luck with your Part in the play!! Here's wishing you all the luck in the world in any choice that you make as your career. With lots and lots of love. always remaining your friend.
Loads & loads of love - Ruth (Ruthie)

ADMINISTRATION

Victory is a goal to work for, not wish for. The Administration has taken this as a motto and has faithfully and excellently done its part in preparing us, the students of Beaumont High, for the job ahead ---the winning and retaining of peace on earth and good will toward men.

M. L. Cariker, Assistant Principal; Newman Smith, Principal;
C. E. Ferguson, Registar.

BOARD OF EDUCATION

Sincerely endeavoring wisely to administer the school, this body of eight civic-minded citizens has led us through another year of war. Their part in preparing us, the future citizens of America, was ably done.

It is a hard job to please a school full of people; the Board of Education did not let this hinder them in carrying out their excellent program. We of not so acute judgment realize now that what they did was best, and will continue to be so.

Letting wisdom and foresight be their guide, they have chosen the curriculum, teachers, and textbooks for our fair school. Their repeated efforts at improving the school institutes confidence in us. Their superb ability at their task has been shown by the quality of this year's graduating class. They owe their fine preparedness to meet the problems of living to these fine people.

The war has presented apparently insurmountable obstacles. Courageously they stuck to the job until it was done. This was their cog in the machine of education. We cannot be too high in our praise of the task they have done so well.

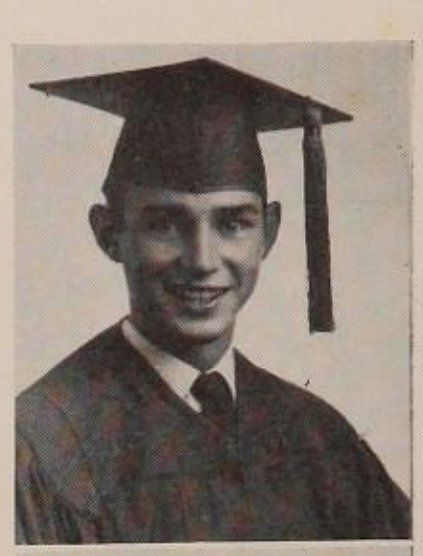
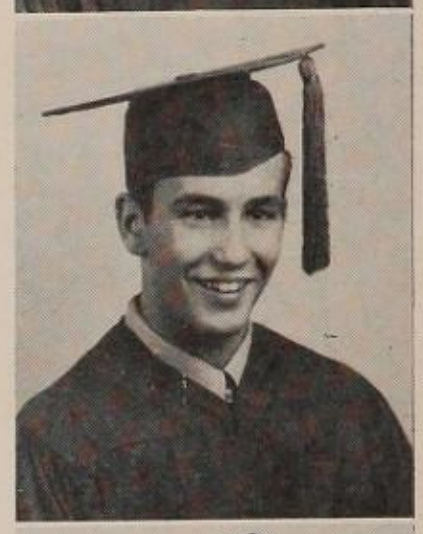
CLASSES

SENIORS



SEAY, JIMMY

Easy-going Jimmy, president of our senior class, is a born leader. He's always been tops with everyone, especially the girls! Jimmy can change from the serious to the humorous in less than a moment, and we all love him for it. Wherever he goes, whatever he does, we'll always remember him for the friendly, laughing chum he's been.

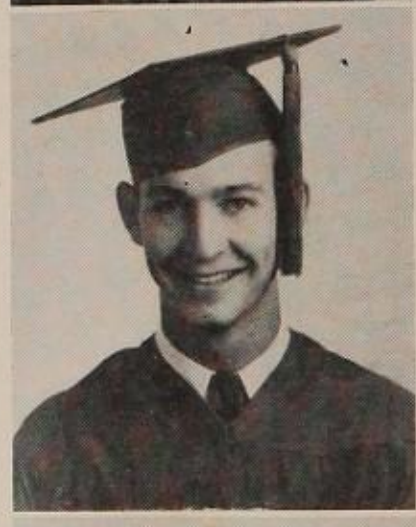


BARNES, JAMES

"J. B."—those initials could stand for "Just Brilliant" or James Barnes, because "Jimmy" and outstanding achievements are inseparable. No matter what he attempts, nothing less than excellence satisfies him. As for satisfying, James certainly does: Friendly, scholarly, a great athlete—and—well, if you please, just one swell guy!

MORRIS, MARTHA JANE

Somebody special on anybody's list is M. J. M. There's something unusually inspiring about that girl! Her vibrant personality and boundless energy have become part of BHS legend; and we admire her for the countless hours she's worked on numberless school projects. The future sees her headed for radio work, and, well, how could she help but be a success?



SMITH, KENNETH

Football, hunting, fishing—those three things are symbolic of "Smitty." Blonde, good-looking Kenneth will enter the Air Corps after graduation. But, when the greatest show on earth is over, A & M will claim him for her own. He's a future engineer—and bound to be a good one. Good luck, "Smitty," we think you're one great guy!

MISS CHARLSIE BERLY, Sponsor

ABOOD, DOROTHY

A little girl, but full of friendliness. We've known Dot a long time, and it's been a pleasure. We wish her all kinds of luck, and we know she'll have it, for, where she finds no luck, she's sure to make her own.

ABOOD, GEORGE

He's a swell boy. Those who know him best say so, and from all we know of him, we can endorse this opinion most heartily. He expects to enter the service soon after graduation, and we know he'll make a good soldier.

ADAMS, TOMMY

"Live, laugh, and be merry"—this is certainly Tommy's motto. When Adams is around, you may be quite sure that no moment is going to be dull. His jokes may be ancient, but we couldn't do without them. Whatever path he follows, we wish him the best, 'cause he's "a jolly good fellow."

ALEXANDER, MARY ELIZABETH

How can anyone so small hold so much intelligence and so much fun at the same time? Mary Elizabeth is the happy possessor of a heart open to all the world. She's a secretarial aspirant, and we know she'll find success in that field. So, here's happiness to her, always.

ALFORD, MAURICE

Here we have another loyal Royal Purple, of whom we're very proud. Maurice is a well-liked personality in his wide circle of friends. And those friends all send him off with the best of all wishes for a truly happy and prosperous future.

ALLEN, GEORGE OTIS

George Otis seems to have achieved the impossible: his personality combines a keen mind and nimble fingers with an alert eye and an open heart. This much is certain: he cannot fail. With the wisdom, the tact, and the eagerness to know that he possesses, only "excellent" can be marked on his life's "report-card."

ALLEN, HERBERT

Any BHS scholar who has ever been in any of Herbert's history or language classes will agree that he is an outstanding student. As his vocation he chooses petroleum or rubber engineering, and plans to take this up in college. We send him off to success with our best wishes.

ALLRED, ROBERT

A little bit of humor can brighten up the world. Bobby can supply enough to keep it quite bright. He's more than friendly, he's a friend. His way of being happy with whatever he has will fill his life with true content.

ALPHA, LaVERNE

Full of vitality and a zest for living, LaVerne is a gal for whom we have the utmost respect. She'll be in there fighting, for she plans to go into nursing. Perhaps the Cadet Nurse Corps will attract her. At any rate, we know she'll find deep satisfaction in her profession.

ANDERSON, WILLIAM

William plans to become a minister and, as he has one of the best speaking voices in BHS, he should be a fine one. He is a good-looking blond and his hobby is music. We wish him the best of luck and hope we'll hear him preaching from a local pulpit some day.

ARMSTRONG, CHARLOTTE

Quiet, sincere, capable—these are the qualities one sees in the face of Charlotte. Actions speak louder than words and certainly this young lady knows it, for she is seldom talkative, but always on the job.

ASARO, JERRY

Upon completion of his high school work, Jerry intends to go right to work. After the war he is planning to go to Alaska and Canada. And, then, too, he wants to pay South America his compliments. Let's wish for him much happiness and luck in his work and his travels.

ATOR, ROBERT

The boy with the dark eyes and the shy grin—that's Robert. You have to know him well to get more than a timid "Hi" from his lips; but we know he shelters a wealth of friendliness and generosity beneath that timid exterior. Here's the best in the world to you, Robert!

BALDWIN, ANNA JEAN

Anna Jean plans to attend T. U. on completion of two years' work at Lamar. The saying "Beautiful but dumb" does not apply here, because this pretty brunette plans to major in mathematics and foreign languages. Our best wishes go with her.

BAZ, MATILDA

Matilda will get along anywhere. With the talents and the inclination to use them that she has, life is sure to treat her well. College and a course in aviation will kep her busy after graduation. Good luck, Matilda!

BEADLE, DALTON

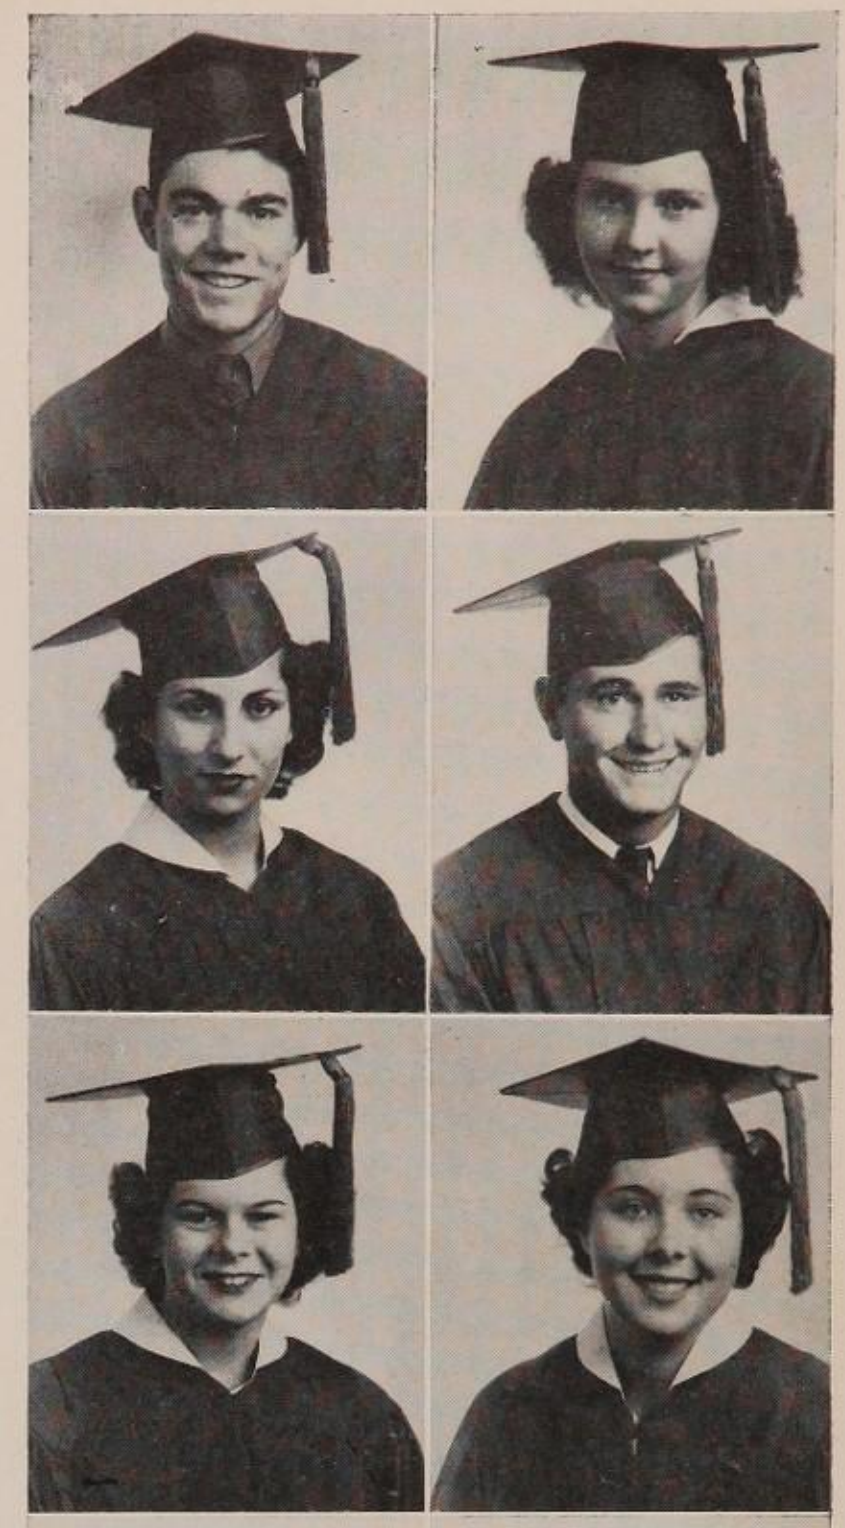
The strong and silent type is Dalton. He's always ready, not to do perhaps the obvious thing, but the thing that he thinks is right. He's bound to get along everywhere, because he likes people and they most certainly like him.

BEAN, FRANCES

Frances doesn't talk a great deal but when you look for her she's always there, doing as she should, with that winning smile on her lips. She wants to be someone's private secretary, and after graduation will take a business course.

BELAIRE, VELMA

Dark-eyed, dark-haired Velma seems never to be in a hurry, and yet whenever she's needed or wanted, there she is! May your kindness and generosity be repaid ten thousand times, Velma, and may all you give to life be returned to you, enriched a hundred times.



BEMAN, BETTY JEAN

In the future a certain hospital is going to be very popular with the stronger sex. Do you want to know why? Well, because Betty Jean is going to be head nurse. Can't you just hear the boys begging for Miss Beman to "please take my temperature"?

BERNARD, WILMA

Now what is a nickname for a sweet little girl like Wilma? Well, we don't know, but she's the most energetic person we've seen in many a day. She's not sure but believes stenography is the profession for her. We wish her luck in whatever she does.

BERRY, JULIA

"Give me my bronc and my saddle" is this young lady's cry. Bowling is also one of her favorite pastimes. As for her college life, she wants to go to Lamar and from there to Baylor. After her studies are completed she wants to see the world. Our hearts go with you, Julia, to the ends of the earth.

BILLINGSLEA, BARBARA

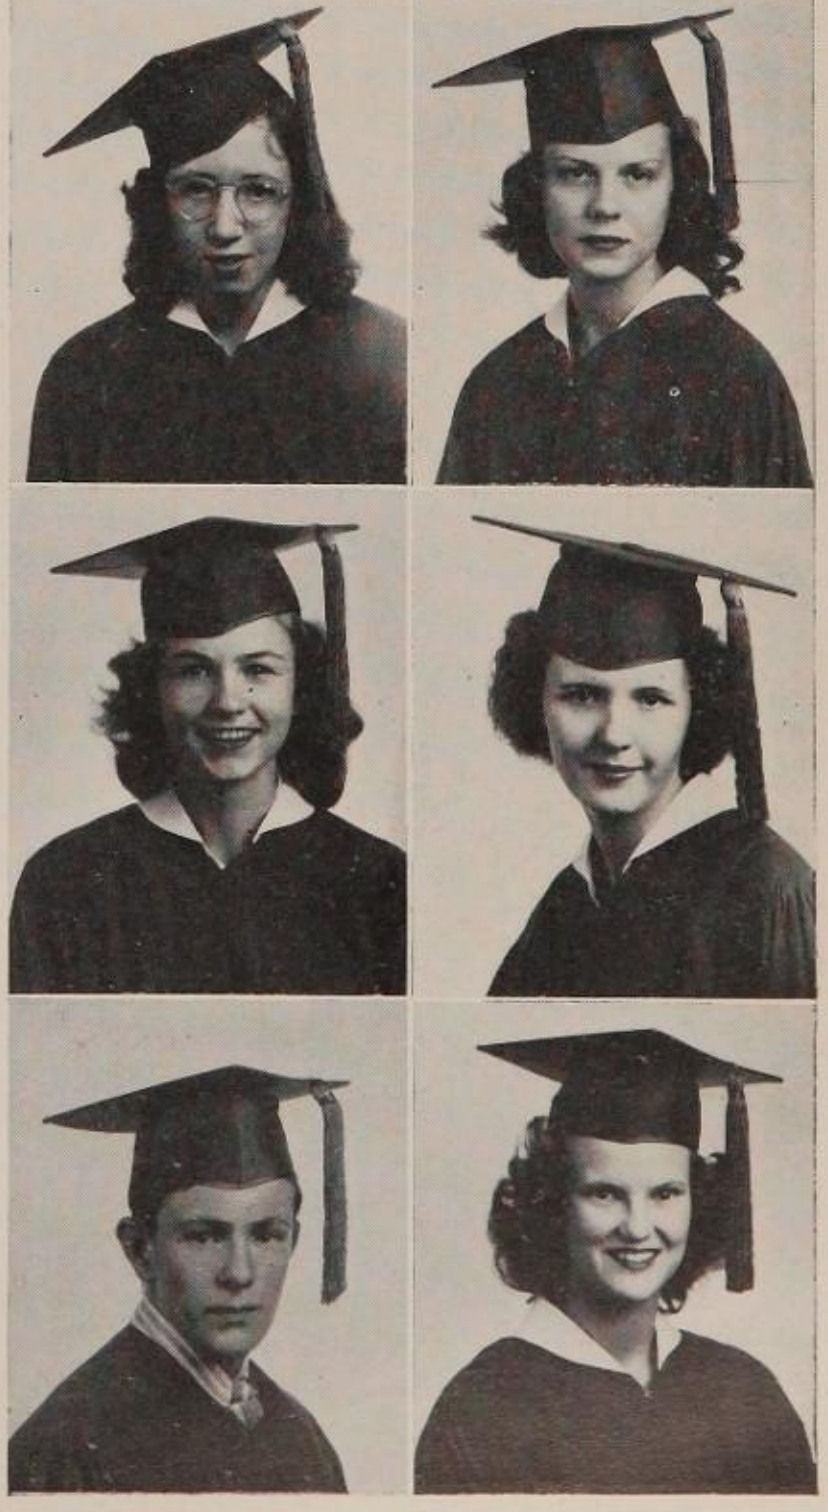
This lovely red-haired gal was not with us for very long, but certainly long enough for us to know her and to like her very much. We send her our sincerest wishes for a rosy, laughing future no matter where she goes, no matter what she chooses for her lifetime job.

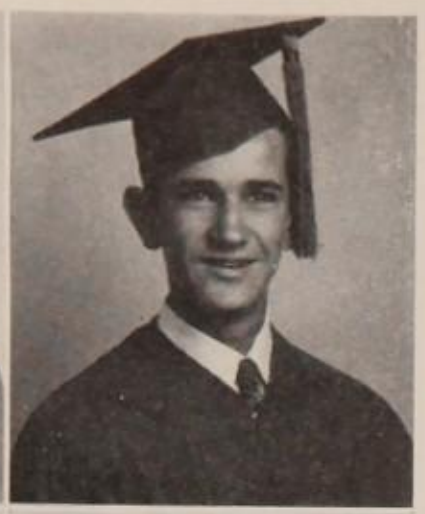
BINGHAM, J. O.

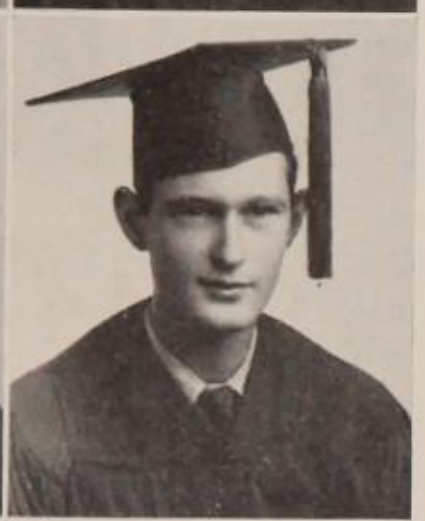
Another one of the wolf pack of BHS is J. O. Likeable and friendly and capable, he is popular with his friends and teachers. BHS will remember him fondly, and expects to hear only the best from him in the future—and may that future be filled with all the best of things in life.

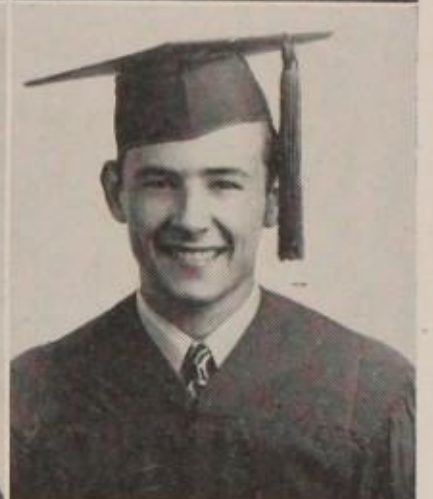
BLACK, BARBARA

This charming young lady has as her ambition to be an interior decorator; one of the best. She wants to go to Baylor University first to study, and then will be New York bound to continue her work. Wherever she goes, whatever she does, Barbara will always win friends and influence people because of her lovely personality.









BLAKEMAN, RITA

Rita, a popular BHS lass, will some day be a great concert pianist. She can beat out anything from Bach to Boogie—and make it sound like something out of this world. Rita is a combination of brains and beauty, and in the near future, we'll applaud her success. Good luck!

BOUDREAUX, GENE

This gay young man is quite the man-about-town. He could dance his heart out any day in the week. He'll probably be happy all the way through life. Uncle Sam beckons in the not-too-far-away future—and, after that, may it be only the best!

BRANDES, BOB

Bob is simply a born organizer. During this past year he's played guardian angel to the band by keeping the music, the musicians and various and sundry other articles in order. Doubtlessly, his life too, will be faultlessly organized so that his heart's desire will not be far away. We're betting on you, Bob!

BRANDHORST, WILTON

Here's another BHS rooter that we'd like to have you meet. He's just a typical senior boy—and we think that's something pretty great and grand. May the future that he faces be rich with the fulfillment of his most secret dreams. We think it will be.

BRANNON, BEN AUBREY

"Give me my gun and tackle," croons this chap who enjoys hunting and fishing. Perhaps we have another great hunter in our midst. He chooses engineering for his vocation and, unless Uncle Sam changes his plans, he's going to that wonderful institution of learning, A & M. Here's to a future Aggie!

BRANSON, CARL

The tall, handsome guy with the bright grin who is seen ambling down the halls at various times of day is none other than our own Carl. Able and amiable, Carl has shone in classes and on the Pine Burr. It's been fun working with you as co-editor on the Pine Burr staff, Branson. Thought we'd let you know we like you lots!

BRECHIN, JACK

This friendly fellow with the shy grin was meandering easily along with the rest of us—when, suddenly, his eighteenth birthday popped up. So, the Navy is Jack's true love now. He's a fightin' Scotchman for his Uncle Sam. And we say he's doing himself proud!

BRIDGES, MERRILL

Just such boys as this good-loking one are representative of the best we have. Our sincerest wishes for a wonderful future go with Merrill wherever he goes. May good luck be with him always. With his personality and ability to get along anywhere, we hardly think he'll need luck at all—good things will just naturally come his way.

BROCATO, CONSTANCE

This young lady is dark and slender, and lovely to look at, too. On "the third finger, left hand" she wears an exquisite diamond ring, so we know that her future is already taken care of by some lucky fellow. And may that future be packed with nothing but happiness.

BROUSSARD, BERNICE

This cute, brown-haired girl is going to spend her time making other people beautiful. She's going to train to be a beauty operator. We all know by her performance in Beaumont High that she can make her goal.

BROWN, HILERY

Another nomination for typical boy graduate of 1945 is Hilery. And why not? He's likeable, and fun, and ambitious. That looks to us like a winner on anybody's score card. We hope he is a winner, in everything he attempts throughout all his life. We're counting on him.

BROWN, HARVEY

Harvey is a boy who is looking to the future, for he is going to be an electronic engineer, specializing in radio and television. He is now in the Army Air Corps reserves, and will be called for active duty in June. Happy flying to you, Harvey!

BRYAN, BILL

More than one of the weaker sex has been on the trail of this football player. Bill played end on the team the past year. After graduation he wants to join either the Navy or the Air Corps. Whichever it is, one will have a grand boy, and with his personality Bill will go far on the road to success.

BULGIER, BILLY

We have a future Pasteur in our class. Billy, whom we are used to seeing play the violin, spends his Saturdays in the lab at St. Therese. For a pastime he studies bacteriology in his own laboratory. Following graduation, he will go to Lamar and begin his pre-med. We're sure that no matter what he does in later life, Billy will be a success.

CAIN, IRIS MARIE

With a complexion like peaches and cream, and a nature as sweet as a day in June, this girl is sure to go places in the world. Her ambition is either working as a secretary or making some man a good wife. Here's to you, Iris!

CAMMACK, LOCKWOOD

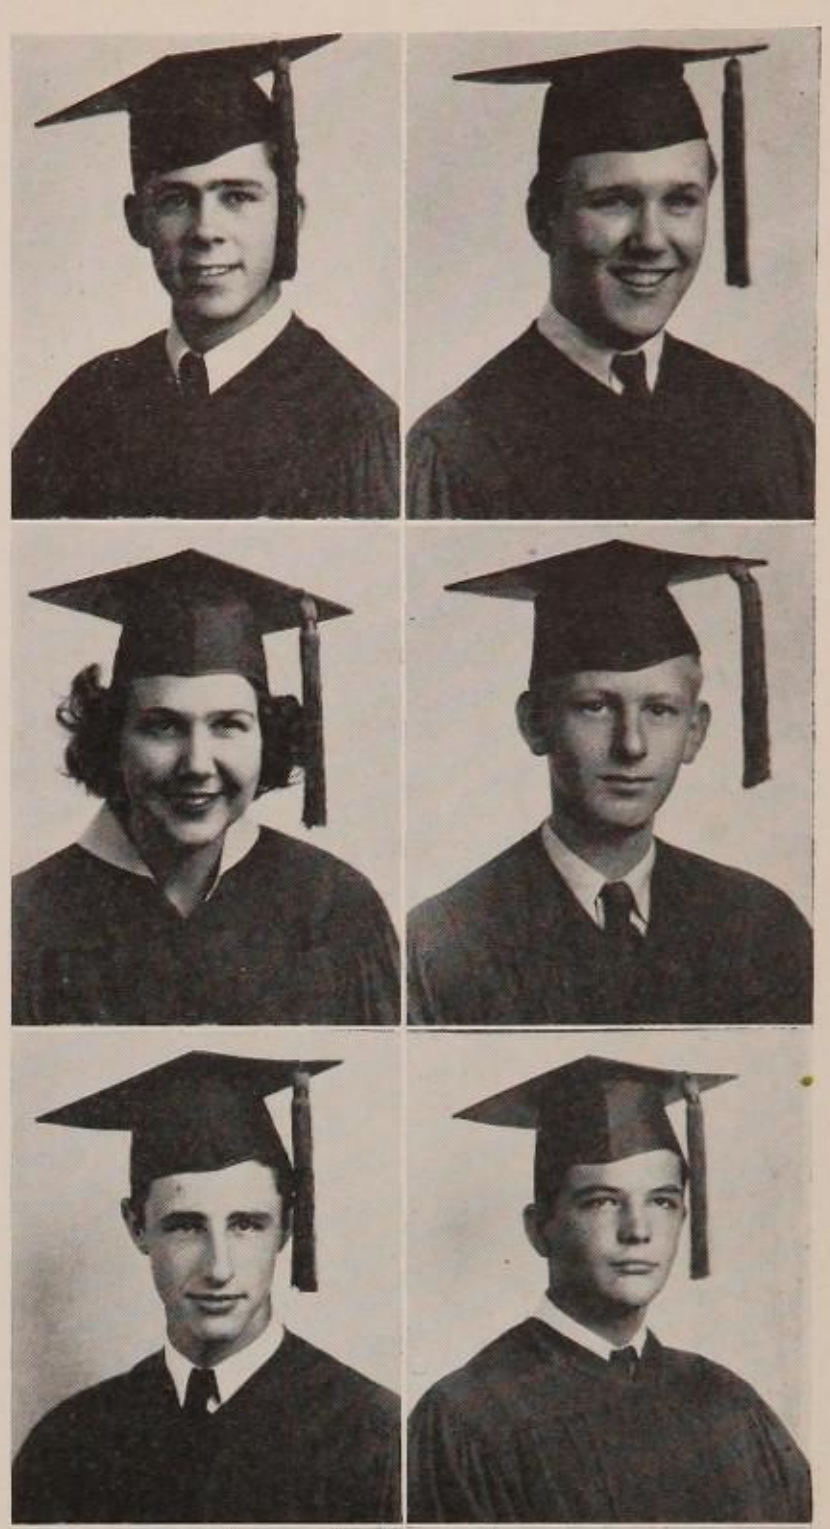
If there is anything he can't do, he has a reason for it, and if there is anything he can do, then it's dairying. Lockwood plans on going to college . . . that is, after he's done his turn for the world by wearing the Navy Blue.

CARLISLE, REID

Nobody is ever quite sure what's going on inside of Reid's mind; only the twinkle in his eye tells you that it's something awfully good. So, we keep guessing—and he keeps chuckling to himself. No matter which path he chooses in life, we're certain he'll make his mark.

CARROLL, BILL

He's our great salesman and he's bound for Texas U. after graduation. As for his major—he hasn't the vaguest idea. He yearns to be either a rancher or a politician. We think it's politics because Bill could argue a polar bear out of its fur coat on a cold day. Anyway, with his zest for living and his love of all that's best in life, Bill should be a success at anything.



CARROLL, CALA SUE

She'll laugh and sing her way into anyone's heart. With a toss of her golden head, she'll shake off worry and go her merry way. The world will be happier because Cala Sue's in it. She'll major in music at Peabody in Tennessee. She can't help but be a success.

CARTER, EDDY

Eddy is everybody's pal—and how he loves his fun! If you hear a wild explosion coming from the chemistry lab—that, indubitably, was Carter! If you hear someone mumbling wisecracks in his beard, that is Eddy. He's assured of success in life. How could anybody have such a good time and not be!

CARTER, RAY DON

This much we simply have to say about Ray Don—his friends all say there's nobody else quite like him. His amiable personality, his easy smile, and his twinkling eyes betray a boy whose heart loves fun and laughter and all the wonderful things in life. We hope his life is full of all things he dreams of having.

CASE, JUANITA

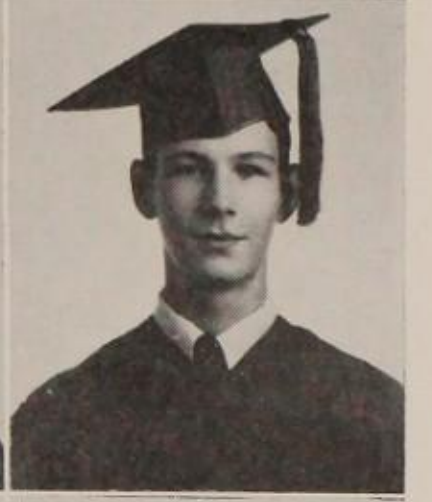
Brown-haired and demure is this young lady we'd like you to meet. Her smile is a delight, and the steady, easy way she does her work is refreshing. No matter where you aim in life, Juanita, may your arrow go straight and true—to the target of your dreams!

CASEY, JAMES KIRBY

Here is an ambitious boy. He wants to get a Master's Degree in aeronautical engineering. He will begin his higher education at Lamar, and from there will go to A & M. He is a rather serious minded person, but knows how to enjoy life and what is has to offer.

CASH, DON

This rather quiet, nice-looking boy, though unobtrusive in his manner, is by no means unknown. In fact, it is his kindly smile, his inconspicuous presence everywhere that has endeared him to all his friends. Actions speak much louder than words, and if you're good you needn't tell the world about it; someone who appreciates you will do it. So we're telling the world that Don's somebody pretty swell.



CHANDLER, BILLY CLYDE

Everybody knows Billy. They count themselves especially favored who have received that shy, almost embarrassed grin from his lips. We like that grin—we like that boy. So, we're backing him up with all the sincerest, deepest wishes for a world of success and laughter through all his life.

CHANEY, JOE FRANK

Soon the world will see this lad sporting the uniform of the Merchant Marines. He's very sure this is the one branch of the service. By the way, he is Mr. Cariker's ideal: he comes to BHS five days each week of each school year without cutting any classes!

CHANEY, LaRUE

Our nomination for the tiniest senior is LaRue, but her cheery smile reveals a big heart. She wants to be an air hostess, but will have to wait until she is eighteen. Meanwhile, she will go to Lamar College. All of our best wishes go with you, LaRue; may happiness be your life companion.

CHEFCHIS, FREDA

Lamar and Texas will be Freda's Alma Maters. Her secret ambition is to become a successful housewife, and we'll wager she will make a good one. Freda has the knack of being able to laugh her way through life, so she should find success in whatever she does.

CHERRY, KATHRYN

Another sweet girl graduate is Kathryn. We hope that the world will some day have the chance to know her and like her as we have. And may the fairy ship that bears her fondest dreams come in to port in the very near future. We think it will.

CHESTER, ELDON

We've unanimously chosen this big, good-looking blonde as our favorite band member. We love his blustery voice, and rapier-like wit aimed at injustices. As for us, we like him and we'd like the feeling to be mutual, 'cause we think he's one swell guy!

CHEVALIER, EDWIN

Edwin wants to go to college to major in Business Administration and minor in Airplane Mechanics. Lamar and L. S. U. are the colleges of his choice. He is definitely an L. S. U. fan. The best of luck, Edwin, may success be yours always.

CHISHOLM, KING

"Just call me King"—and truly he is a king. Reserved in manner, usually, but definitely a hearty and wonderful friend to those who know him best. His favorites are mathematics and chemistry, the subjects he intends to major in at A. & M. Good luck, King, always in all ways.

CHOATE, DOLORES

Very nice and easy to get along with is Dolores. She wants to be a stenographer. After graduation she will attend a business school to study her chosen profession. The best of luck, Dolores, and may success always come your way.

MAULDIN, NANCY

Pleasant, sweet and really nice to know is this young lady. Nancy is listed as "somebody really nice" on all her friends' lists. Beaumont High sends her off with all the good wishes in the world. May her life be rich in boundless happiness.

CLAYTON, JUANITA

Here we have one of the sweetest brownettes in BHS. She's such a home-loving lass! Some day she'll really make a good little wife. Sewing is her hobby and she prefers home economics to all her other studies. Juanita is really a lovely example of the fairer sex.

COCHRAN, ALVERNA

"Somebody really special," say her friends. We think everyone who really gets to know her will be certain to agree. As for us, we're wishing for her all the things in life that she most desires. We somehow think the best will always come to her.

COE, MARIAN

Everybody loves winsome little Marian. Her blonde hair and laughing eyes reflect the lovely heart that she possesses. If you ask her, she'll tell you that she's too impulsive—another thing we love about her. With her there is never a dull moment and certainly no slack in conversation.

COLBY, FRED

His name is Frederick—so they call him "Bo." Nobody's quite sure way, but it fits him beautifully, so "Bo" it is. He's definitely on the shy side, but frightfully good-looking with that mop of blonde hair and those big blue eyes. We like him lots, and send him off with all the best wishes in the world.

CONERLY, CHARLES

This suave, man-of-the-world is out to succeed in everything he undertakes. It's really his pet avocation. And he certainly is a go-getter. We wish him happiness and success through all his life.

CONLEY, JOHNNIE RUTH

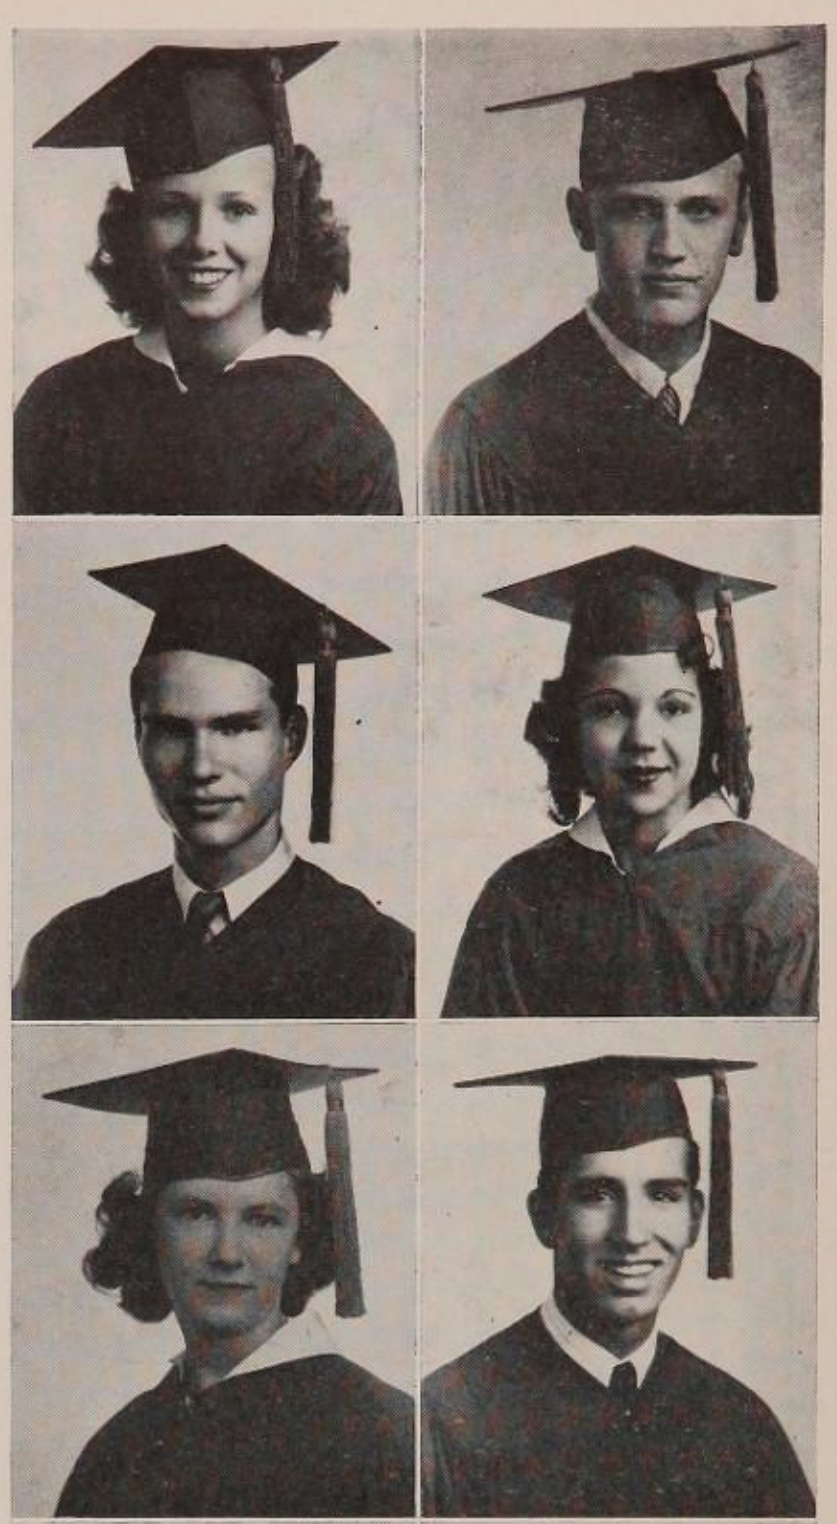
A typical high school girl is Johnnie, a good mixer and a good worker. Usually she's bursting with gay spirits and fun, for that's her big moment, a swell time. Yes, Johnnie has genius for enjoying herself and making everybody like it. She has a fine ambition, but won't let us in on it.

COOLEY, BETTY JEAN

This tiny little brunette has a quick step and a friendly smile to prove that she's the possessor of a light heart and a happy one, too! May that heart always be gay and laughing, Betty Jean, and may the best things in life all come your way.

CORDER, ALFRED

If you want this dark-eyed hero to come to your rescue, you will have to call on the United States Navy, for it is that branch of the service that claimed him after graduation. We think all the success in the world will be his, and we're betting on him, too!



COSTILLA, LUCY

Lucy's ambition is to make some lucky businessman a very efficient secretary. With her pleasing personality and intelligence, we know she will go far in the business world. We send our best wishes with her.

CRAGER, JAY

Jay intends to enter Texas University to take pre-med. This leads up to becoming a psychiatrist some day. Jay loves to dance, but his chief hobby is being friendly.

CROCKER, TOMMIE JEAN

Tommie Jean is one of BHS's cute blue-eyed blondes. She has a very lovely personality and a winning smile. After her BHS days are over, she plans to go to business college. We all wish her success and happiness in her future years.

CUNNINGHAM, JESSE

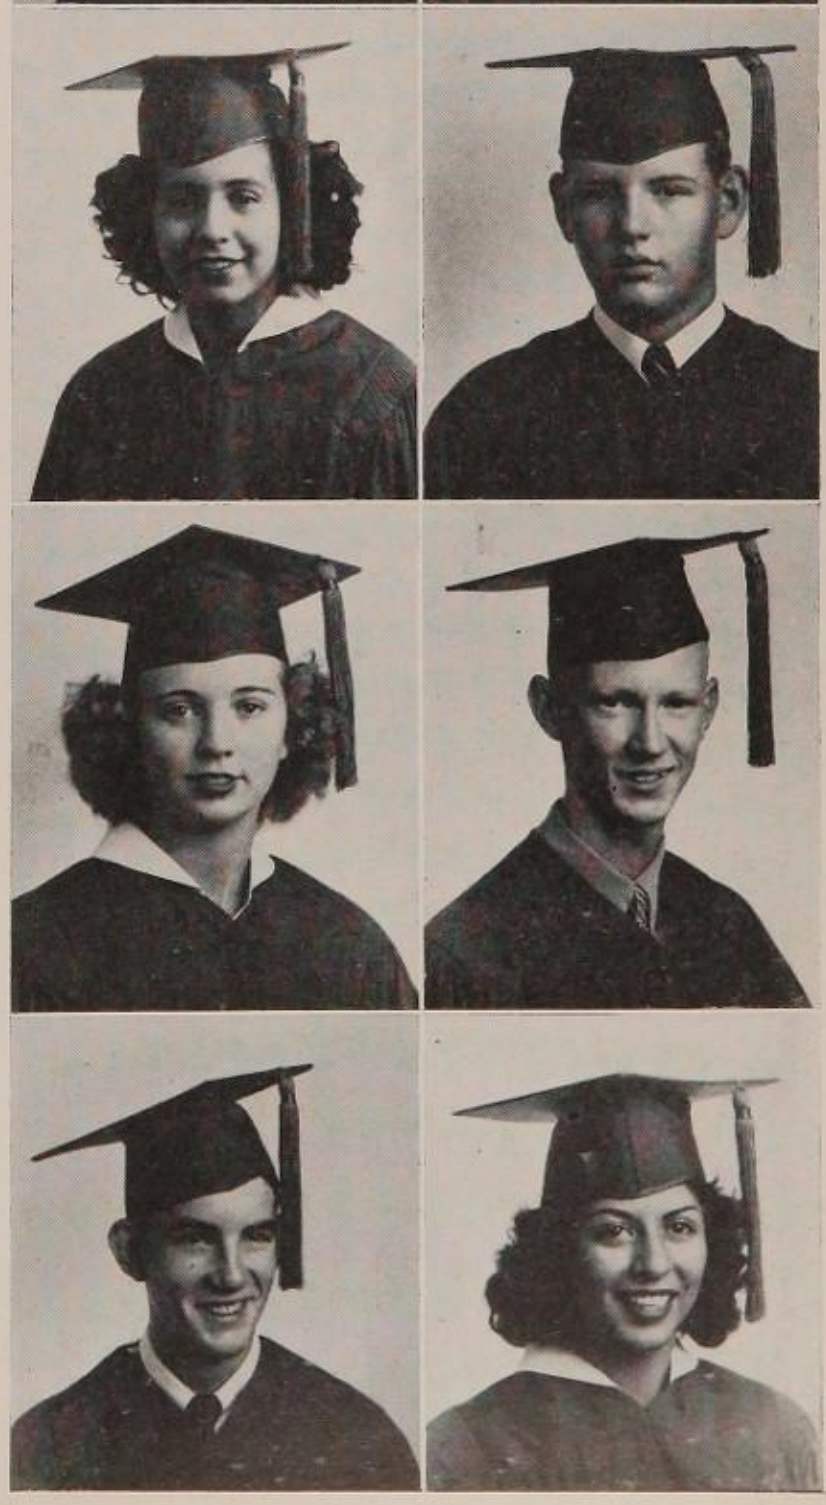
"The Spirit of Aggieland" will be Jesse's theme song for the next four years because after he finishes BHS, he plans to study at A. & M. Jesse's pet hobby is hunting and fishing. We send him out with our best wishes.

DAMREL, BOB

Bob has been unanimously voted the senior class's favorite Jester. Whenever he's around there's bound to be fun afoot. Not only is he fun, but Damrel is also extremely handsome—and quite a heart-breaker, too. We hope he gets the very best in life, because that's what he deserves!

DANIELS, ALBERTA

A smart girl, with lots to say that she has not yet gotten around to saying. Nursing's her vocation, and we wish her the best in it. We're glad to have had you, Alberta.



DARDEN, PEGGY SUE

This good-looking blonde is one of the corps of daily letter-writers. Yes, fellows, we're sorry but her heart is definitely overseas so you're out of luck. Chalmers Brammer is the reason for that misty wistful look in her eyes. And, Peggy, when he comes marching home again, may all your dreams come true.

DARLAND, PRESTON

Good-looking, friendly, easy-going—this is Preston. Those who know, like him, and those who don't know can count themselves among the unfortunate, for he's a pretty wonderful fellow in anybody's estimation. With his ability and will to succeed, he should do well in everything. We hope he always does!

DARRELL, TROY

Here is another one of those future birdmen of the Army. Troy is very interested in the Air Corps and his many friends in "Dear old BHS" are wishing for his success.

DAVIS, LaVERNE

Lamar is the college of LaVerne's choice, where she will take a pre-med course. She will be either a technician or nurse—and boy will she make a swell-looking nurse. Here's the best to you, LaVerne.

DAVIS, RICHARD

If you don't know Richard's face, you certainly know his voice. He's the little character that every morning over the public address says, "Please give your attention to the following announcements." An asset to any gathering, Davis likes to have fun and livens any party with that droll wit of his.

DAVIS, SHIRLEY

We've had this tiny mite of a girl for one year only—long enough we think, to prove she's a pretty sweet kid. She may be little but those twinkling eyes reveal a huge heart. We send her off with all our sincerest wishes for her future happiness. May your future be as bright as the sun, Shirley!

DAWSON, BILLY

Billy is of the silent but strong class. He prefers to let his actions talk—since they speak louder than words. An enthusiastic cornet player, he has made an amiable band member. Here's wishing you the very best of luck in your chosen work, Billy.

DAY, MARJORIE NELL

Marjie's ambition is to be a "lady of leisure," but failing that, she would like to be an interior decorator. Her favorite pastimes are swimming and horseback riding. May her life be long and merry.

DeBUSK, SONNY

Sonny is a crackerjack trumpeter and his ambition is to study at the Eastman School of Music in Rochester, N. Y. We predict that Sonny will be another Harry James as he eats, sleeps, and breathes TRUMPET. Best of luck, Sonny!

DEMPSEY, RAYMOND

If nobody else can do it, just call on our he-man, Dempsey. He's bound to be around somewhere, because he always seems to be everywhere at once. He's at his very best as an "enjoyer of life" and, therefore we know he's just a born success!

DePRIEST, DONALD

If the man of your girlish dreams is dark-eyed and dark-haired, if he smokes a pipe and has a snappy comeback, then you need look no further. Donald is your guy! We think he's a pretty swell fellow, because he's fun and easy to get along with, too. Here's the best to you, Donald!

DICKERSON, THELMA

Thelma might be the typical American school girl in any body's scrapbook. She's neat and capable and friendly, too. She's high on her friends' lists of favorite people. We think, that with all this to her credit, success should most certainly be hers always.

DIMMITT, BEULAH MAE

Her eyes sparkle with a love of life and her chatter is as gay as her smile. While she prefers literature, speech and history to other subjects, she'll specialize in commercial art—probably at Southwestern, later in New York. "We've strolled the lanes together"—and we think you're swell! Good luck!

DOEBELE, SEVERIN

Now here's someone who is interested in the Navy. Severin wants to join the Navy and see action on the high seas. "We are going to miss you when you leave, Severin, but we know you'll remember all your BHS friends." Keep those words in your heart always, Severin.

DONOVAN, MARY FRANCES

Mary can be spotted in a crowd because of her black hair and good vocal cords. Her future plans include a pre-college education at Lamar and then she plans to go to the University of Southern California. Good luck, Mary Frances, it's been fun!

DOWDEN, GROVER

Dark-haired, friendly and shy—that most surely is Grover. His grin comes slowly, but—what a grin! He's fun to have around, and his friends will all tell you he's one pretty wonderful guy. We think so, too. So, may all your dreams come true, Grover, and soon, too!

DUNIGAN, RAY

Small and shy is Ray. But remember, the biggest surprises always come in the very tiniest packages, and a timid exterior may shelter a soul that's thunder and lightning in action. You may keep us guessing, Ray, but when it comes to you, we don't guess; we know, you're swell!

duPERIER, MYRTLE MAE

If the girl you just saw was about five feet, two inches tall; if she had dark hair and big shining eyes; if she was dashing madly about news for the paper—then, that was "Myrt"! She's a marvelous dancer and a fine personality. Here's to the top, Myrt,—no one deserves it more.

DURDIN, BETTY JO

She's tall and dark and beautiful and she drives her car like a demon. A smooth dresser, Betty is loved by all who know her, and lucky are they who are numbered among her friends. Wherever you go, Betty, may life hold in store for you nothing but the best of everything.

DYER, HAZEL

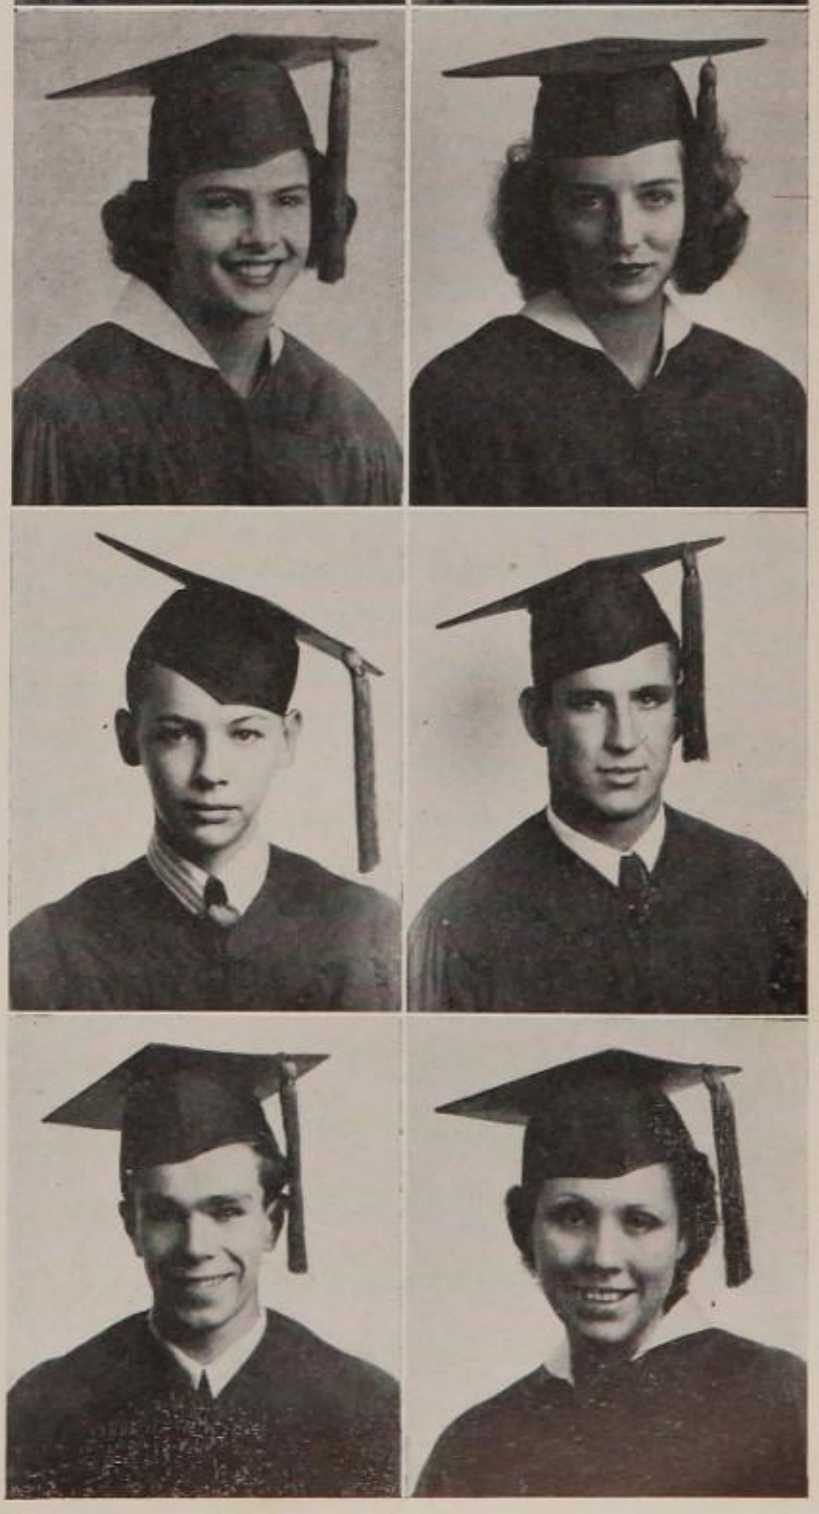
V. out of our ranks nto his before mid-term. We've missed him, so we toast him: "The best of luck—to a great fellow!"

WOLFE, DANA

Another well-liked young senior is Dana, an ambitious and popular young boy. We're all wishing for him the very best of good things all his life. May everything you desire, Dana, all be yours. You certainly deserve it!

WRIGHT, IDA MAE

Ida Mae is a quiet and very sweet senior. She is well-liked for er extremely sympathetic personality. We wish for her all the loveest things in life. May happiness and success be yours for always and lways. No one could deserve them more!



YATES, DON

As all BHS students can testify, Don will probably succe his ambition to become a professional baseball player. Don is o our favorite Yankees; he's from New York. And he's most cer been a welcome addition to our class. Good luck, Don!

YEARY, C. M.

C. M. is an extremely quiet boy. He's a steady, hard wo too. And, yes, he's every teacher's dream-come-true, for he se talks in class and never creates a disturbance. No matter wha chosen work, we're backing him up with all the best wishes the world!

JUNIOR CLASS

The Junior Class of 1944-45 carried out all of its programs and activities very successfully, which were enjoyed by all who participated and attended.

The Class got under way when they chose for their sponser Mr. "Smiley" Davis.

When talk of having a large bond rally was heard about B. H. S. --this turned out to be a reality-- the Junior Class got busy and elected Libby Abbott to represent their class, who had stiff competition, for the representative for the Sophomore Class was Ann Williford, and the Seniors chose Elizabeth Tyrrell. The Juniors wound up the Bond Rally by selling $30,000 in War Bonds, and accordingly, Libby Abbott was crowned Duchess of the Bond Rally.

The Juniors' good luck, or we could credit it to skill, continued when we presented "Days Without Daddy" as their annual play. Parker surely proved his worth when he pulled out his "Bull Durham," and began to puff away. Evidently Joe Mouton was practicing up, for he was the minister that married Lynn Walker and Wilma Eddins. Every person present seemed to enjoy "Days Without Daddy".

As a reward, the Junior Class cleared a cool $140.00 off the production.

As the year rolled on, they presented "Rings in the Sawdust" as their stunt. In this musical hit, many hidden talents were uncovered, for Arthur "Inky Snow" Smith did all the good by "accentuatin' the positive and eliminatin' the negatibe". Carl Rankin made all the girls swoon to the tune of "Don't Fence Me In". Dare Keelan showed his age as the son of "Widder" Jaybird, and Flora Dean Ford demonstrated her encentric manner on "Mamma's Little Angel".

The class showed their appreciation to Mrs. Howell for her superb direction by presenting her with a vanity, backstage.

The entire class looked forward to the Junior-Senior Prom, and although it had to be postponed several times because of conflicting dates, everyone felt that it was worth waiting for. Mr. Guither's "Purple Swingsters" furnished the music in the gayly decorated gym that the artistic David Cargill provided for. You guessed it, the feller in charge of entertainment was "Meatless Meatballs" Smith.

The bad news came out in May, with the Juniors looking forward to being high and mighty Seniors in three months.

Beaumont High started the season with flying colors. We trounced a fighting French eleven 13-7. It was an even game, hard fought all the way, with our team capitalizing on the breaks to chalk one up in the win column.

For their next game, our team traveled to Lake Charles, whom sports writers picked as the best team in Louisiana. Anyway, their aerial offensive clicked, and they rolled over us to the tune of 26-6. Beaumont fought hard, but couldn't stop the fleet Wildcats.

In the first district game we beat Port Neches, who was playing its first game in 14AA, 19-0. It was a hard fought game all the way, but Beaumont's offensives, which were not to be checked, counted three times to give us the game.

Remembering last year's stinging defeat, we rolled over St. Anthony 38-0. The regulars were taken out in the second quarter, and our subs continued the offensive. Although outweighed, St. Anthony showed plenty of spark and gave us a hard struggle.

A powerful Orange team spoiled our homecoming game by beating us 20-13. It was a fight all the way, but Orange sewed it up in the fourth quarter. Both teams played brilliant ball. Ken Smith's scoring pass to Alfred Corder from the 35-yard line and Bingham's 39-yard run were only two of the outstanding events.

Traveling down to Galveston for their next game, our Purple clad boys were overrun by a fast-stepping Ball eleven. It was swift, fleet-footed Raymond Ragone who ran our backfield ragged. We put up a swell fight but just couldn't stop them. The final score was 31-0.

The next game we played was with Conroe at Conroe. Lamar Hart, the captain, played a brilliant game for the Purples in the running back position. It was a hard fought game, but we were too much for them. We chalked up another in our win column to the tune of 13-0

A powerful Goose Creek eleven beat us 24-6. Although we put up a fight, they were not to be stopped, and we were beaten.

The state-champion Yellow Jackets from Port Arthur showed their true power in rolling over us 45-0. Our team fought and had plenty of spirit, but the Port Arthur powerhouse rolled on. The final game of the year we tasted probably the worst defeat of the season. A hard-running South Park eleven, led by powerful Jimmy Clotiaux, beat us 19-0. It was the first time they have beaten us on our own field.

BASKETBALL

Beaumont High's Royal Purples really went to town in basketball. They won 20 out of 23 games, the City Championship, and the North Zone of District 14AA. They were undefeated in City and North Zone play. In the City Park Department Tournament, the Royal Purples cleaned up, going through the Tournament undefeated. In the other tournament, in which they were entered, the Purples went to the semifinals, and were defeated by Cushing 30-24. Goose Creek defeated them in District playoffs, 51-32, and 46-31.

With only one letterman to build on, Coach Hutchison produced a smooth-working hotshot team. Their passing and shooting ability was praised many times by opposing coaches and men.

Lamar "Bubba" Hart, returning letterman and guard of extraordinary ability, and Don Mace, smooth ball handler and hotshot, were the two stalwarts on defense and the leaders in the Purple offensive. Edgar "Snow" Arthur and Ray Don Carter, fast breaking forwards, kept the meshes warm with their repeated counters. Joe Mouton, center, kept the offensive moving by ringing up two points every few minutes for our side. These five were ably aided by Ted Jackson, Ed Hilder, and John Gambrell. All these were lettermen.

The job of the second string was to keep the first string in tiptop condition, and they did just that. The second-stringers were Don Willis, Richard Davis, Earnest Crone, and Carl Branson. Their rewards were reserve letters and silver basketballs.

We cannot underestimate the ability and teamwork of the '45 Royal Purules. They've made a name for Beaumont High.

As the Pine Burr goes to press, it is impossible to foretell the outcome of the 1945 track season in terms of events won or lost. Judging by the initial performance of the Purple tracksters in the Port Arthur meet, there are in the pictures on this page a number of outstanding performers in track and field events. Coach Davis, who has worked hard to arouse interest in track among the boys of Beaumont High, should be congratulated for his fine work with these boys.

BOYS' PHYSICAL EDUCATION

Under the careful tutelage of Coaches Davis, Hutchison and Coy, the boys of Beaumont High School have gone through a careful program of physical conditioning designed to prepare them for military service or civilian life. The many activities in which the boys engage include calisthenics, boxing, tumbling, obstacle work, and organized games of all types.

That students of the future may follow in the footsteps of the boys who have during the past year prepared themselves physically for service at home and abroad is the devout wish of us all. Inevitably there must come a time in the life of every boy when he will be called upon to engage in physical activities; conditioned reflexes such as those developed in this well-rounded physical education program, will be of inestimable value.

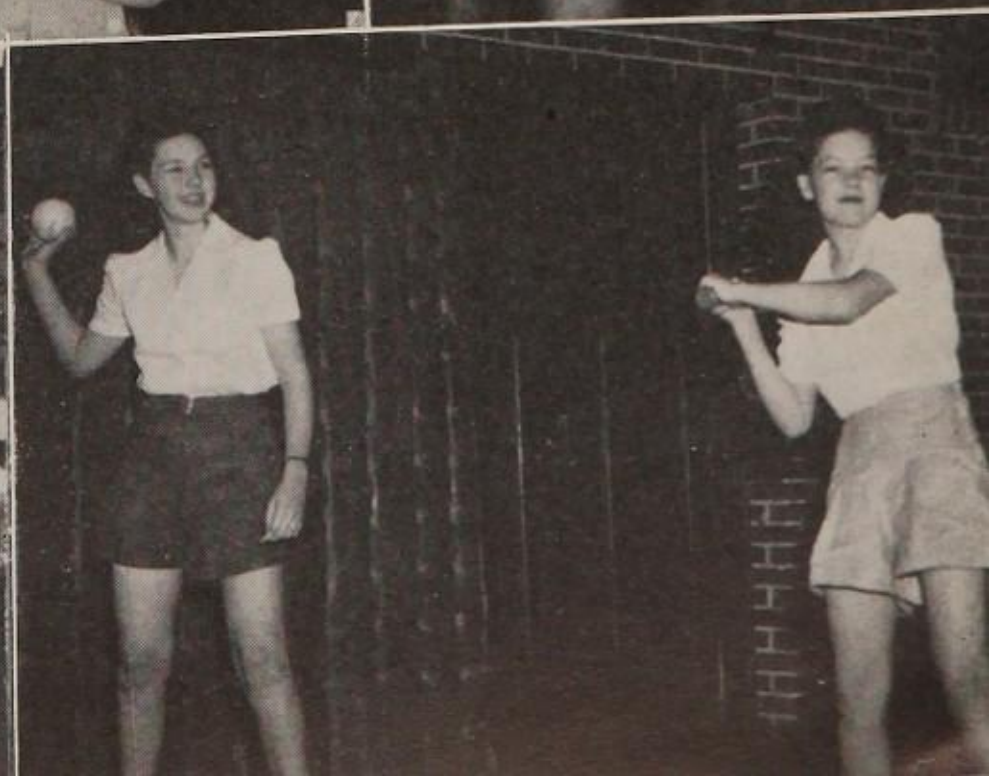
GIRLS' PHYSICAL EDUCATION

Under the able instruction of Misses Sheehan, Hughes, and Pye, the Girls' Physical Education classes trained and exercised. Playing basketball, tennis, volleyball, and baseball, they attained a health standard that will be a boon to them all their lives. Exercising and proper nourishment were two other courses that helped them to attain that standard.

The girls worked hard all through the year, but they felt that it was their part toward raising the nation's health standard. At first they had a hard time, but gradually their muscles and ligaments loosened, and they felt better then they ever had before.

"She's Out!" "Get it, Get it!" are phrases they use quite often. "Right flank, March!" "Knees bend!" With a popping and crackling of stiff joints, the girls loosened their gastroc nemius and grasilus major (leg muscles to you).

After a year of alternately being stiff and feeling good the girls feel that they have contributed much toward victory, and they are prepared to pursue their careers, whether it be as WAVE, WAC, or student.



CHEERLEADERS

Acclaimed by all who saw them in action, the BHS 1944-45 Cheerleading squad was tops. Their supply of energy seemed supernatural in its proportions. The cheerleaders were all over the place, not even stopping or letting the student body stop for a breath of air.

The members of the squad were Dare Keelan, head cheerleader, Elizabeth Tyrrell, Corky Sledge, Jane Winfree, George McClelland and Mildred Whatley. When BHS was host to out-of-town teams, the cheerleaders gave BHS a name for its cheerfulness, friendliness, and co-operativeness.

Although we consider the cheerleaders to be close to perfection, they worked hard every day to improve themselves. This wholehearted trait of attaching themselves to their task is characteristic of our cheerleaders.

One of the cheerleaders, Elizabeth Tyrrell, became ill toward the end of the season. Her job was ably filled by Myrtle Mae duPerier.

Under the able guidance of Miss Frances Sheehan, the cheerleaders worked their heart out for BHS. We, the students, appreciate their efforts and accomplishments and thank them from the bottom of our hearts in meager tribute.

ROYAL GUARD

The drum and bugle corps has been in existence since 1924. This group was first organized, without instruments, as a drill squad known as the Boosters and remained so until 1931. In this year the drill squad became known as the Purplettes, and served also as the pep squad. A few years later in 1934 plans were made for a drum and bugle corps, and the organization chose to become known as the Royal Guards, which over a period of ten years, has given service to the school and has been "Ever Loyal". The officers this year are:

Captain ..... Mary Lou Henckel
Drum Lieutenant ..... Frances Nobles
Tenor Drum Leiutenant ..... Iva Mae Stafford
Bugle Lieutenant ..... Ellen LaCour

Color Guards:..... Margaret Ann Turner (Sergeant), Joyce Stafford, Clarice Lewallen, Dorothy Holland, Gloria Courts

SENIOR PLAY

One of the Year's outstanding dramatic achievements was the senior class presentation of "Tomorrow the World", a timely drama concerning the rehabilitation of a Nazi boy, Emil Bruckner, played by Richard Davis. Richard really brought down the house with his neat interpretation of the difficult character.

All the six feet and two inches of Reed Quilliam's bulk were thrown into his portrayal of Michael Frame, Emil's uncle who transported him to a small midwestern college town, only to find that he had a Hitler youth on his hands. Marjorie O'Madigan gave an understanding interpretation of Leona Richards, Michael's fiance, who gained the boy's hatred by her Jewish blood. The loving pose below was one of the many torrid little scenes between the two which added to the appeal of the play.

Jessie Frame, Michael's idolizing sister who turned to Emil for comfort when her brother announced his marriage plans, was played by Erbel Simmons. Pat, Michael's daughter by a previous marriage, who took up for Emil repeatedly, only to receive a blow on the head for her trouble, was played by Myrtle Mae du Perier.

Beulah Mae Dimmitt was Frieda, the Frame's maid, German by birth, but American by choice, and Jerry Asaro the college janitor, Fred Miller, who had his eye on the key to the professor's laboratory, and the military secrets behind its doors. Jimmy Moll, Forrest Smith, and Morris Drew McCall deserve honorable mention for their able characterization of Dennis, Tommy, and Butler, Pat's three friends whom she paid to come to the party she gave for Emil.

After seeing the play, we didn't wonder that it played to a full house all during the '43, and '44 stage season, and that it was voted one of the outstanding moving pictures of the year. We only wonder that our senior cast wasn't imported to play the roles on Broadway, and in Hollywood.

JUNIOR PLAY

Peace and quiet was all Mr. David Day (Arthur Smith) wanted, when he returned from Egypt, but what he found was anything but peaceful.

Mrs. David Day (Carolyn Cruise) is writing a book and has no time for the problems of her children; Danny Day (Oscar Davis) who has just turned 18, and is leaving for the army, while Betty Day (Lois Cooper), who runs a private canteen in the Day house, is engaged to four men, Jose (Leonard Goldstein), Macdougull (Leon Gray), Lt. Ranny Whitmore (Ray Mitchell) and Lt. Dixie Roberts (Johnny Allen).

Lt. Kenny Gilbert (Lynn Walker) comes to visit the "Day Canteen", not knowing that this is the family of a girl to whom he was once engaged. While he is there, Mary Day (Wilma Eddins), now a WAC, comes home on a furlough. After some confusion, they plan a quiet wedding, but Grandma Day (June English), Aunt Kate (Bobby Sue Cain), and Aunt Annie (Shirley Furby) are af a different opinion.

Professor Fud (Arthur Beck), a publisher, arrives at the Day home with a reporter (Joyce Pintsch), who is immediately captured by Grandma Day.

Mrs. Bustle (Evelyn Balcar), the general housekeeper and Leota (Grace Abney), the maid, have their hands full preparing for all the wedding guests, while the plumber (Parker Folse) adds his wit to the situation.

Danny's girl friend, Piggy (Jacqueline Myers), creates several high moments with her chemical explosions.

Harriet Day (Margaret Wiley), the daughter-in-law, is the pacificator in the Day family, and does her bit in solving the Day's problems.

With everything under control, Reverend Frederick (Joe Mouton) begins the ceremony.

Miss Dorothy Coats did a superb job in directing her first production at B. H. S. Those contributing to the success of the play were Betty Wyatt, Billy Richard, Charles Landry, Eldon Chester, Beulah Mae Dimmitt, Marilyn Neil, and Felice Michelson, Miss Fannie Bouton, in charge of properties, was assisted by Grace Lillja, Mary Terrell, and David Cargill.

Voice of Youth

The Voice of Youth Club, composed of students recommended by their history teachers, is an organization which offers students an opportunity to become informed about current events and to broaden their views through a series of debates and discussions.

Meetings are held during the sixth period every Monday, and talks concerning the topic of the program are given by the four discussion leaders--two on the affirmative side, and two on the negative, which are followed by a general class debate.

The questions for debates range from local affairs to international problems, and the students select their own topics.

Some of the topics which have been discussed at regular meetings are as follows: Dewey or Roosevelt; What to Do With Germany; Compulsory Military Training; Should the Electoral System of Electing the President Be Changed?; Has England Acted Unwisely and Unfairly With Greece?; Should the Chinese Government Cooperate With the Chinese Communists?; Should Persia Grant Oil Concessions to Russia?; Should the Treaty Power of the United States be Curtailed?; and Should a National Service Law Be Passed?

Aside from the regular Monday meetings, the Voice of Youth Club occasionally presents an outside program. This year several of these programs have been given. October the eighteenth a two-act play on the Constitution was presented at the Rotary Club, and repeated on the nineteenth in the Beaumont High School Auditorium. "Post-War Education" was the theme of the discussion given November 29th at 7:30 P. M. over KRIC on the Pilot Club's "Forum of the Air".

In the Voice of Youth Club, students learn to investigate problems and to present both sides of a question, which is very necessary in the democratic way of life, The purpose of this organization is to further patriotism, to improve citizenship, and to create interest in domestic and foreign affairs.

CONGRATULATIONS

So you've finished up the "long grind," have you? LUCK TO YOU!

Well, just remember this: a pretty good formula for security and happiness is to save a little something out of everything you make. You'll be amazed at how quickly small savings accumulate into substantial amounts, when dividends are compounded semi-annually!

All investments at this institution, up to $5,000 are insured by an instrumentality of the United States Government. And we have paid all our shareholders dividends of not less than 2½ per cent per annum for 22 years without interruption.

And oh, yes — when the time comes to build a home for yourself and the One-and-Only, maybe we can help you out on the little matter of financing it! Our Home Financing Plan is a good one — time-tested and free from red tape.
